

Matthew Stein, Chris McDermott, Tania and Andrew Widdison, Nick and Helen Widdison, (front) Ross Trimboli and Robbie Davis at the Potatoes SA dinner.

Potato dinner breaks records

POTATOES SA's annual industry dinner raised a record amount of $16,850 for the Little Heroes Foundation late last month. The event was held at the National Wine Centre and attended by 140 industry stakeholders. Thomas Foods International Fresh Produce's Rod Knight was crowned King of Potatoes after he had the winning bid of $10,250 for a box of new-season baby potatoes. FULL REPORT P14-15

Irr
we allo

BY ALI KUCHEL

AN ADDITIONAL 50-g tre water allotment for i tion during dry season been warmly welcome Riverland irrigators.

The entitlement will into effect when alloca are less than 100 per providing irrigators a of security before alloca are tightened.

Waikerie irrigator F Crawford said the state ernment's announce of the allocations late month was a "com sense" policy.

"Irrigation is such a part of the SA economy in the Riverland we und our wine industry, hor ture, citrus and almond said. "They are all indu that are going very w the moment.

"It's a great policy t our industry being r nised in a constructive, nonsense way."

"WE DON'T NEED A PLAN,
I CAN HANDLE IT."

POWER RANGERS